The Avon Representative

She is not just a name, a number, a stencil or a cold statistic... she is a warm human being, with feelings and emotions like your own

She is not an outsider in our business... she is the most important part of it

She is not an interruption of our work... she is the purpose of it

She is the most important part of our company... whether in person, by mail or telephone

She is working to obtain the better things in life for herself and her family... our job is to help her achieve her goal

She can exist without us... but we cannot exist without her

She is giving us the opportunity to serve her... lets do it efficiently and profitably, with thanks for the opportunity

Remember, our growth depends on how well we service our Representatives in thought, word and deed
